Mrs. Smith took an active part in handling the advertising for St. Mary's festival held in the latter part of July.

Planning for a New Church at Mokena

Plans are underway to establish a Baptist church in Mokena. Although nothing official has been announced as yet, work is being done toward that end.

It all came about when Alex S. Duncan, developer of Park View Acres, a subdivision south of Mokena, donated a lot, size 80 x 177 foot, fronting on LaPorte road, across the street from the new Mokena Village park, for the building a Baptist church thereon.

The church has been organized by several members of the Calvary Baptist church at Lincoln Estates, some of whom live in Mokena. Theodore L. Rydell of Sunny Acres is chairman of the board of trustees, and Rev. Arthur Contois is pastor of the Lincoln Estates church. The group is holding prayer meetings each Tuesday evening in homes of Mokena adherents, usually followed by a business meeting. The Baptist conference is lending its aid to establish the church and Mr. Duncan has given an option for the congregation to buy an adjoining lot to the one which he gave. If and when the church is established it will be called The Park View Baptist church.

Mrs. Margaret Semmler, Editor,
Mokena News-Bulletin,
Mokena, Ill.

I have participated in the past four parades and Memorial Day services held each year in Mokena as part of the color guard. Each year it hurts me very deeply to see the discourtesy and complete indifference shown by the residents of this community to the flag of the United States of America. Of the huge crowd that viewed the parade held here Sunday, I could count on my fingers the number of people who showed their respect in the flag of their country by a simple salute. Those who were sitting would not even take the courtesy to raise our flag past.

If by chance there were any communist watching the parade, they must have felt a glow of satisfaction, and could answer their Russian friends that the seeds of communism could grow like he corn in our fertile fields. We spend millions of dollars annually to educate our children in our schools and then destroy those teachings by setting a poor example. One of the first things taught our children in our schools is the "Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag". Our congress which is still in session was so concerned that it spent many hour of their busy session to revise the pledge to include one nation under God as part of the pledge.

As veterans we participate in these parades only for the pride of our organization and the satisfaction of being a part of this great nation. I will continue to be part of the color guard in the Memorial day services out of respect for those who paid the supreme sacrifice to keep our nation free. I personally will never again be part of the colors in the homecoming parade because of the humility I would feel by the utter disrespect shown for our flag. In past parades we were joined by many other veteran groups with their colors. Externally our neighboring veteran groups feel as I do, as not one of them were present with their colors although all were asked to participate.

As editor, I hope you will publish this letter and that the people who read it will take it to heart and in the future be proud to show their respect for their flag on all occasions it is displayed.

Sincerely,
Edward S. Carroll,
Senior Vice Commander

Dear Mrs. Semmler:

Through this week's issue of your newspapers we would like to express our thanks to everyone, who by their votes helped us elect our 4H leader to be Mokena's Homecoming Queen.

Our sincere thanks to you for the materials you contributed for use on our float and also to everyone who helped us in any way in its construction. Out of necessity we girls learned how to use a saw and hammer, even though there is no project of that sort in our 4H program.

Our expressions of gratitude would not be complete without a special "Thank you" to the Mokena Branch of the New Lenox Lumber Company for the use of their trucks and for the lumber they so generously contributed for the construction of our floats.

It was a lot of fun participating in the Homecoming activities, and everyone's kindness will long be remembered by the 4H Jolly Troopers.

Sincerely yours,
Barbara Niemann, Pres.

4 H FAIR OPENS
FRIDAY AUG. 20

The annual South Cook county 4-H fair will run for three days beginning Friday, Aug. 20, at Bettenhausen grove, in Tinley Park. Attendance at this fair has been getting larger each year and viewers at this year's fair will have the opportunity to see and enjoy the many different agricultural 4H exhibits. Judging of the exhibits will take place on the first day of the fair.

Boys and Girls 4H club work is a specialized, educational enterprise for rural youth. It shares the objectives common to all educational programs for the development of the individual's abilities and capacities: for learning, for strengthening the intellectual and moral character and training for effective citizen ship.

As they learn by doing they adopt better practices in agriculture and homemaking, raise their standards and ideals through judging and develop habits of independent thinking. They also learn to accept leadership responsibilities, gain poise before the public and strengthen their appreciation of home and community living.

Every boy and girl who joins a 4H club carries a project. This project is usually a task to do in a phase of agriculture or home economics, extending over a period of months, that helps them learn the better way of accomplishment, involves the keeping of records, making an exhibit and writing a story of the project. Attendance at club meetings to hear project work discussed is also a part of the project.

In addition to carrying on their project work, 4H club members take part in various individual and group activities which help to develop their personalities and abilities such as judging, demonstrations, health, safety, fire prevention, music tours, recreation, 4H shows and camping.

In Illinois there are more than 56,000 boys and girls in over 3,700 4H clubs who are striving to achieve the objectives outlined above. In Cook county there are 65 clubs with total membership exceeding 4,000. The efforts of these 4H'ers to make the best better" are on display for you to see at this "aree day Fair. Don't miss it.

Top Dress Alfalfa Meadows To Get More Hay, Bigger Profits of phosphate-potash fertilizer:

1-You get more hay per acre. That means lower feeding costs and higher profits.
2-The hay is higher quality, more nutritious, with a bigger protein content.
3-The top dressed fertilizer aids in the development of the roots after the tops have grown out.
4-You help increase the life span of your alfalfa stands.

The committee reports that Midwestern agronomists recommend using up to 300 pounds per acre of phosphate-potash fertilizer such as 0-20-20 or 0-10-30, depending on the nutrient requirements of the soil.

Alfalfa has a big appetite for potash and phosphate, the committee points out. For every four tons of hay produced during the summer season, the alfalfa crop pulls out 140 pounds of potash and 55 pounds of phosphate.

These nutrients must be replenished in the form of commercial fertilizer if thick growing alfalfa stands and high yields are to be maintained, the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee reports.

HEALTH HORIZONS

What Antibiotics Mean To You

In these days, when your doctor gives you a prescription, it's a fifty-fifty chance that the medicine is an antibiotic. Antibiotics, according to Dr. Henry Welch of the U. S. Food and Drug Administration, and Editor-in-Chief of the medical journal, Antibiotics & Chemotherapy, now account for more than one half of all doctors' prescriptions. Yet many people do not know what an antibiotic is, or realize "what these drugs have done to minimize human suffering and extend the life span."

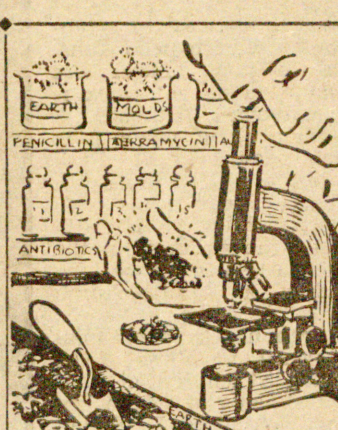

Clue: An Invisible War

Just in the past ten years, antibiotics have revolutionized medicine. Before that, they were unknown—although, odd to say, they must have existed since the beginning of time. We say that because most of the antibiotics have been found in earth. In the soil, scientists have found a microscopic little war going on continually between invisible organisms—the "good germs" and the "bad germs." And, in the past ten years or so, they have discovered how to extract the "good germs" from the earth, purify them, and put them to work fighting against the "bad germs" that cause so many human diseases.

The first antibiotic ever discovered was one that everyone knows today: penicillin. In all the years since, science has managed to find less than a dozen antibiotics that have proved very useful in human diseases—in spite of the fact that pharmaceutical companies have assigned thousands of researchers and millions of dollars to the search.

Deaths Reduced; Operations Fewer

But just consider what these few drugs have done for you and your family and your friends! "The fatality rate for pneumococci pneumonia has been cut to an all-time low of less than 5 per cent," Dr. Welch says. You know how pneumonia used to be feared. "Operations for acute mastoiditis [a serious infection of the ear] are almost a thing of the past. A few dollars' worth of antibiotic usually prevents or cures these troublesome infections." A heart infection that used to be an almost sure sentence of death can now often be controlled. Another infection has become so reduced that "it has become very difficult to find cases." And these, Dr. Welch adds, "are only a few outstanding examples of the contributions to health made by the antibiotic drugs." No wonder your prescription is so apt to be for an antibiotic!

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

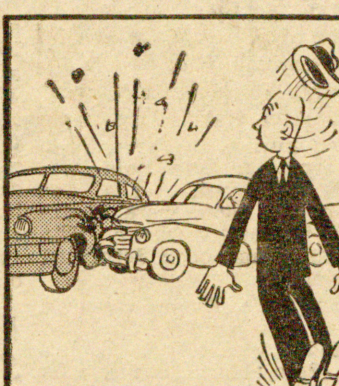

Every person driving a motor vehicle which is involved in any manner in an accident causing death or personal injury or which results in damage of more than $100 to the property of any one person must report that accident to the Department of Public Works and Buildings, Division of Highways, Bureau of Traffic, 405 East Washington, Springfield, Illinois. The report must be made within 10 days. (Section 41, Uniform Act Regulating Traffic.)

An important thing to remember about this law is that it requires you to report the accident, whether you are at fault or not.

You may have legally parked your car and be 100 feet away from it when another car crashes into it. You are clearly not at fault, the crash was not caused by any illegal action of yours, but you are still required by law to submit the formal report.

Many people have received notices of suspension of their driving privileges because, convinced that they had not caused the crash, they failed to report it. It has caused them considerable inconvenience and scurrying about to straighten matters out, all of which could have been avoided by filing a report immediately after the accident.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

Ductile Iron Progress

Steady progress continued to be made during 1953 in Ductile Iron, a cast material of great usefulness, invented and developed by members of International Nickel's research staff. Licensees under the company's patent rights at the end of the year numbered over 250, in more than 20 countries. Castings now in commen production are representative of a wide range of engine components. The principal applications which account large tonnages of Ductile Iron include paper mill and metal king rolls, gears crank-shafts, parts of textile machinery, agricultural equipment, machine tools, spun pipe and pistons. Hydraulic rams and cylinders, dies, tire moulds gear boxes, hand tools, and heat-resisting items, are among newer uses which show promise.

Three New Diesel Tractors

Three new diesel tractors are now in full production on the assembly line at the tractor plant of the Minneapolis-Moline Company. They are the 4-plow UB diesel, available with universal, extended or single-wheel front-end; the 4-plow U diesel and 5-plow G diesel with standard front-end.

All three diesel tractors incorporate a combustion system developed by the Lanova Corporation. The outstanding feature claimed for this system is that controlled rotary turbulence burns the air fuel mixture completely to give the tractor high fuel efficiency.

A three-stage filtering system, with a primary filter and two replaceable secondary filters, is being used with the diesel engines. The primary filter removes water from the fuel while the first secondary filter removes dirt particles. The final filter removes additional foreign particles before the fuel reaches the injection system. A safety by-pass valve protects the injection pump and nozzles from damage if the final filter becomes clogged. Company officials claim that this filtering system increases the performance of the tractor by completely cleaning the fuel.

A third important feature is the 12-volt electrical system. The starter, close-coupled to new long automotive-type 12-volt batteries, provides quick starts without auxiliary engines.

A manifold heater is standard equipment on all Minneapolis-Moline diesel tractors to aid cold weather starting. An ether bulb priming system is available for severe cold weather starts.

Business Man Finds Faith in God and Helpful Spirit His Greatest Asset

This is the unique story of a business man whose attitude is "how much can I do for people," rather than "how much can I get from them."

When Ben Biegelsen, president of Starrett Building Company, moved from New York State to Hollywood, Florida, on doctor's orders fifteen years ago, little did he realize that recovery of his health would mean new health and happiness for thousands of other people whom he had never met. His doctors ordered "permanent retirement," but it took only three years of rest and relaxation in the Florida sunshine to bring him back to health again. For this he has never ceased to thank his God.

Ben Biegelsen, a man who strongly believes in prayer and the power of the Almighty God, realized that thousands of other folks were in need of this same restful life in the sunshine, but could not afford it under ordinary conditions. He decided to do something about it...

Ben Biegelsen, a man who strongly believes in prayer and the power of the Almighty God, realized that thousands of other folks were in need of this same restful life in the sunshine, but could not afford it under ordinary conditions. He decided to do something about it...

erdale, Florida. To Ben Biegelsen this meant his long awaited opportunity to do something "unusual" for people. He could divide this land into some 2,000 lots, and by limiting sales to one or two lots each, he could help hundreds of other folks enjoy healthful living in south Florida. He bought the land... and then something unusual happened. Before a street had been cut or an acre cleared he was offered $100,000 profit for it. His decision was clear-cut and offered proof beyond doubt that his heart's true desire was to help others, rather than make money. He gave the intended purchaser a polite "No, thank you," and pushed his plans for this new community. God had honored his desire to live for others, and he would not "sell-out" for money or profit.

Today "Brentwood Estates" is a sight of beauty to behold! Yes, the land is cleared, the wide boulevard streets are there, the landscaping is magnificent beyond words, and all through the community homes are springing up like mushrooms. Half a million dollars have been spent on improvements, such as paved streets, bringing water to every lot, and the construction of a modern water purification plant. Folks who never dreamed they could afford to live in South Florida are buying lots and building modern homes on terms that their limited incomes can afford. How?

All because this humble man from Hollywood counts profits in terms of pennies and nickles, rather than dollars. He sells his lots for about one-half the actual value in that area; he arranges for modern 2-bedroom homes at unbelievably low prices. Yes, he is making folks happy, and he counts that his greatest reward of all.

Ben Biegelsen, who has always believed in "giving"—also gives liberally to charities, hospitals and religious organizations, setting apart a definite portion of all profits from his business ventures for this cause.

A remarkable story to be sure! Forsaking pills and prescriptions, Biegelsen and his faithful wife, Anna, offer positive proof that God honors an honest motive and a sincere heart that seeks to put others first... and self last.

Will County Fair

To Be Held at

Peotone Aug. 27-29

The Will County Fair association is preparing for a record number of entries, commercial and industrial exhibits, and a well rounded program of entertainment which will feature Hen sons Rodeo and Wild West show and Illinois Soil Conservation council district beauty contest "Queen of the Furrow." The 1954 Fair opens on Friday, Aug. 27 and closes on Sunday, Aug. 29.

Draft horses have been eliminated from the list due to the lack of entries in recent years. This class will be confined to light horses and ponies. A Jersey class has been added to the dairy cattle and a Dorset class has been added for sheep. York shires will be a new class in swine.

Secretary Loitz announced that arrangements have been made with Crown Point Fair officials for the release of exhibits in order that they may compete in the Will County Fair.

A program of vaudeville entertainment including WLS stars is scheduled for afternoon and evening.

Sunday also has been designated as Republican Day when most of the candidates, both state and county, will attend.

4H Jolly Troopers
Win A and B Ratings
At Will County Fair

The Mokena Jolly Troopers 4H club made an excellent showing at the Will County Fair and at Joliet Memorial stadium. A of the girls modeled their ments and its is interesting to note that the club members received either an A or B rating for their sewing.

Advanced sewers Barbara Nieman and Mary Ann Rinke earned an A rating and Jo Ann Hecht a B rating. The A rating qualified them for participation in the state competition which followed the county competition. Eight of the skirts entered in the first year sewing project received an A and the ninth entry a B rating.

The outdoor cooking project members with a practical approach decided on "A Simple Backyard Supper." This entry in a large field of competition was one of the two that received a blue ribbon for Lavonne Erdman, Barbara Nieman, Sheila Bennett, Rosemarie Munch, Jo Ann Hecht, Mary Ann and Gladys Rinke. Participation in this project is restricted to those above grade school age.

Fertilizing Winter Wheat Gives Top Yields, Profits

Starter fertilizer, plus nitrogen, gave higher wheat yields and earlier maturity in Missouri tests, than did wheat with starter only, or nitrogen only.

TOP PROFITS from winter wheat will come from top yields per acre, according to the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

With fewer acres in wheat this coming season, in community with acreage allotment top yields will give low cost per bushel. This will provide profit margin between production expense and selling price extra acres released from wheat can be devoted to other profitable soil building crops.

"For top yields of winter wheat," says the committee, "Midwestern agronomists recommended adding from 50 to 500 pounds per acre of complete fertilizer. This fertilizer, they say, should include at least starter amounts of nitrogen and a full feed of phosphate and potash where they are needed."

"On heavier soils many areas, farmers have found that the fertilizer put on at seeding time can well carry all the nitrogen needed for the growth of that wheat."

"By putting on all the fertilizer in the fall, these farmers have reduced the risk of not being able to top-dress early enough in the spring to give the extra fertilizer a chance to have its full effect in boosting wheat yields."

Another advantage of adding all the fertilizer in the fall is that many farmers can save the expense of an extra trip over the field. Such an extra trip not only increases the cost per acre, but often damages the soil structure as well.

"Wheat that has available all the nutrients needed for high yields can take full advantage of favorable weather and other conditions which affect production. When wheat is well fed it not only gives more bushels per acre, but higher quality, too."

Brooks, who has a new book coming out called "My 35 Years Behind Bars," said the new "revolution" started in Puerto Rico because its dry runs taste good by themselves. Now everybody else is talking about drinks just on ice or "with just a splash of your favorite mixer," while highball glasses are getting squatter to meet old-fashioned glasses getting bigger.

The mixing authority, formerly head barman at New York's Stork Club and other famous spots, saw these reasons for the trend:
1. Better-tasting liquor since the old drinks of bootleg spirits and wartime rums.
2. "Americans are growing up and want to taste their liquor, as they do in every land with drink traditions."

3. Alcohol rid the body of heat. The standard liquor industry book, Grossman's Guide, says "That is why rum is drunk in the tropics; it is more cooling than ice water."

Doubleheader Game

The Trinity Walthers Leaguers played a doubleheader last Sunday, one a regularly scheduled game against Chicago Heights, and the other game against Homewood. Tinley had originally been scheduled to play Homewood in a doubleheader Aug. 8 but these games were rained out. There was sad news for the Tinley team at the end of the first contest for they were outplayed at the hands of a spirited ball club, Chicago Heights. The Heights team showed their ability to keep going and took advantage of 4 Tinley errors in beating Tinley 8-4. This loss to Chicago Heights does not move the Parkers out of second place, however. The records of the two clubs at the end of the ball game read: Tinley 7-3; Chicago Heights 6-4. Although Tinley outthit Chicago Heights they could not come up with the all-important runs they needed. Triples by George Schultz and Lawrence Rauch started rallies for the Tinley club but they were soon put down. At the end of this contest played at the Heights the Trinity team went to Homewood where they looked altogether like a different ball club. The Homewood game proved to the Tinley rooters that their ball club did know how to score runs after all, for they jolted Homewood for 18 runs on 17 hits, while Homewood was held to 6 runs. Highlights of the game for the Tinley club came on 2 homers, one a grand slam homer by Les Becue in the 3rd inning with the bases jammed and the other by Don Schroeder in the 6th with nobody on.

Things weren't looking too bright for Tinley in the first 2 innings because Homewood jumped off to a quick 3-0 lead. Tinley scored in the 2nd to make the score 3-1. Bill Koehler then put the side down in order in their half of the second. Warren Schultz led off in Tinley's half of the third inning by beating out a bunt. After Don Schroeder lined to the shortstop, Leroy Hoeft singled to score Schultz. Hoeft stole second and moved to third when the 3rd baseman bobbled Bob Fremder's grounder. Bill Koehler was hit by a pitched ball, loading up the bases. Les Becue stepped to the plate and belted the first pitch over the right fielder's head for a home run which cleared the bases. This ended the scoring for Tinley in this inning with the score 6-3 in favor of Tinley. With this 5-run outburst, Tinley went ahead in the game and never was in danger thereafter. Homewood was held scoreless in their half of the third and the red hot bats of Tinley began to work again in the fourth.

Don Schroeder singled and advanced to second on a single by Hoeft. Schroeder scored on an error by the 2nd baseman and Hoeft went to second on an error by the 3rd baseman. Incidentally, Homewood committed 13 errors in this game to Tinley's 3. Bob Fremder singled and Bill Koehler walked. Les Becue also walked, forcing in a run. Bob Fremder scored and the base runners advanced when the pitcher uncorked a wild pitch. A single by George Schultz scored Koehler and Becue to end the scoring and give Tinley 5 more runs.

Tinley let loose another 5-run spurge in the 5th inning. Warren Schultz singled and scored on a double by Don Schroeder. Bob Fremder scored. Schroeder with a single and scored on Koehler's single. Becue's triple scored Koehler and Becue later scored on a fly ball to deep left hit by George Schultz. Hitting honors of the day went to Bob Fremder and Don Schroeder. They each collected 3 hits and scored 3 runs. Schroeder also had a double besides his homer. Les Becue's triple and home run gave him high RBI honors with 7 for the day while Bill Koehler scored the most runs by crossing the plate 4 times. The final score of the game was 18-6 in favor of Tinley Park.

Blow Soap Bubbles For Summer Fun

Who complains about the heat when you can blow such glorious soap bubbles out on the front lawn? Junior seems a little skeptical about the wind to leeward, but sister can't wait until that special soap-and-water formula creates a really gigantic bubble. Their mother helped them with the "recipe" and added one tablespoon of glycerine to a jar of rich soapsuds. As these two tots will tell you—this makes the bubbles bigger, more colorful, and "tougher" so that they last longer.

mel homered for Matteson. A. Buchmeier walked. G. Buchmeier hit what appeared to be a home run to deep left center, but Rodger, playing left field for Tinley, made a sensational one handed running catch. A. Buchmeier was doubled on this play after rounding 2nd base and failing to touch second on his return to first, after the ball was caught. With two out in the 6th Lucas came through with his second single of the game. Rodger walked and Hug added his 4th hit of the game, a double to left field that went between the fielder's legs and cleared the bases, putting Tinley in the lead 7-6.

Martin singled to open the 6th for Matteson, but Tindall's perfect throw to T. Siemsen caught him on an attempted steal. With two out in the 7th for Tinley, O'Neill was hit by a pitched ball and T. Siemsen walked before the last man struck out. Matteson threatened in the last of the seventh when Muffley doubled with one out, but the threat was short lived when Muffley was called out for colliding with the shortstop. Lucas, while he was fielding Trummel's ground ball, The next batter bounced to the pitcher to end the game.

Frankfort defeated Peotone Sunday and will battle the Healy Ponys on the Fulton school diamond Sunday, Aug. 22 at 2:30 p.m. For those who may wonder why our team is called the Healy Ponys, we would like to explain that the Healy Construction Co. of Hinsdale, with a very generous contribution made it possible for us to uniform the team, for the Pony division of the Wilco league, and because they sponsor the Healy Farms Polo team, it was decided out of appreciation to them, to use this name.

The new steel and wood grand stand at our diamond was made possible by the collections at our home games, together with the cooperation of your local school board. Our thanks to Bob Flessig, and Al Hough, school custodians, for putting in extra time after hours and on Sunday to make this possible. The assistance of the fathers of some of the ball players was also appreciated. Thanks to coaches and umpires who worked thru the season to keep this program alive.

Our Tinley Park girls have really caught fire and are a threat to any team they play. Winning 3 out of their last 4 games, Tinley Park now has a record of 7-3. Last June when Tinley Park went to Frankfort they got beat 17-7. Tinley Park committing 11 errors. Last Monday night on a return game at Memorial Park, with Frankfort using the same battery combination as in June, Tinley Park handed them a 24-4 beating. Battery combination for Tinley Park was Diane Albright pitching and Judy Gray doing the catching. Although Diane gave

with the UNI-FARMOR

For speedy, high-capacity harvesting of any crop, you can't beat a self-propelled unit. And now, with the revolutionary new Minneapolis-Moline Uni-Farmor, you take the field with a self-propelled machine on every harvest job! And that's not all! The self-propelled Uni-Farmor actually costs you far less than the conventional tractor and "pull-behind" machines you'd need to do the same jobs.

Yes, that's right—far less. In fact, comparison shows that you save as much as $1500 or more by buying the Uni-Farmor. Savings like that mean bigger profit margins for you, extra net earnings from your land.

Come in and compare the cost. We've got it down in black and white. See why we say "You get far more for your money with the MM Uni-Farmor."

BABSON SAYS—

Copyright, 1954, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.

Readers have been disturbed by General Lindbergh's important article in the July 17th issue of the Saturday Evening Post. The gist of the Lindbergh article is that the H-Bomb is bringing about a new era in world history against which it will be almost impossible for any country to protect itself. This means that unless the United States is willing to start a surprise World War III, our only chance is to have such elaborate powers for retaliation that no other country will start one. This will mean continued high taxes until a revolution in Russia or something unforeseen happens.

Although my Organizations are not authorities on military affairs, we do know world history. Certainly conditions today are very similar to what they were 500 years ago. Any reader can check this by studying H. G. Wells' Outline of History, or Munro's The Middle Ages, or books on the Reformation and European Revolutions.

As was the case around 1450, the power of the established Churches today has distinctly weakened. The rulers of the Western Nations have today become timid, while the Russians are trying to absorb other nations — repeating the pattern of 500 years ago.

History shows similar conditions existed when printing became powerful in 1450. This, like the H-Bomb, became a threat to the entrenched rich political kingdoms. The church and kings fought by legislation, persecution and wars; but the rise of the masses could not be stopped. The printed word became more powerful than the sword. Reforms, revolutions, and beheadings followed. The discovery of the H-Bomb is unsettling civilization today as did the birth of printing in 1450.

Naturally we do not want to see entrenched capitalism collapse as did entrenched monarchism. We now use legislation, submit to high taxes, and endure small wars to protect our way of life. As these same methods were practiced 500 years ago to protect established monarchism. Could it be that the fear of the H-Bomb will become as powerful as was the fear of printed books 500 years ago?

For the long pull, I am an optimist. I do not believe in the Lindbergh Retaliation Theory. I, however, do believe that the fear of the H-Bomb (like the fear of printing 500 years ago) could handicap our western democracies with a blow to the capitalistic system.

Lindbergh's only hope of preventing our big cities from being destroyed is by constant threat of retaliation. Such will retard the forces of Communism, but it will not accord with Christian teachings. Will the threat of retaliation save capitalism as we now know it?

The Communists will not ever win a Third World War; but they may gradually increase their power and influence by constantly threatening to start such a war. Surely, we may expect continual small wars, big military preparations and high taxes.

My grandchildren agree with me that security cannot be obtained indefinitely by legislation, pensions, and tariffs. As our ancestors learned to live with "printed bombs," we must be prepared to live with H.Bombs. Jailing Communists today may be no more effective than was beheading, burning heretics 500 years ago. One of my own ancestors, Reverend John Rogers, was so burned "at-the-stake" for translating and printing the Bible in 1555.

Hence, I urge my grandchildren: (1) To develop a strong and sane spiritual faith; (2) to acquire robust health and good habits; (3) to become an expert in some useful industry; (4) to own a home and raise a family in an agricultural center; (5) to have investments widely diversified both geographically and industrially, avoiding large cities.

Hogs Sell High

Will county swine were among the high sellers on the Chicago stock yards market Aug. 9, according to a spokesman for the yards.

Leone Geiss, of Wilmington, marketed 13 meat-type butchers that averaged 189 pounds each and sold at $23.25 per cwt., which was only 75 cents under the extreme top for the day.

Reduced swine receipts Aug. 9 met with fairly active demand. The average price for the day rose 25 cents over the close of the week. The top of $24.00 was paid for a large number of hogs that met the demand of the fancy lean meat trade.

A liberal supply of cattle was on the market and met with broad demand from both local and eastern buyers. Prices were steady to 25 cents higher with one load of Hereford steers bringing the extreme price of $26.40 per cwt. Buyers were most interested in cattle with enough finish and quality to grade prime.

Imports into the U. S. of residual fuel oil, a heavy, thick waste product from the refining process that is valueless for home heating & can be burned only in industrial boilers, rose 6% in 1953.

Growing by Giving

Lesson for August 22, 1954

A GREAT deal of "giving" is not giving at all. When two relatives give each other Christmas presents, it is more rightly called an exchange than giving. When the Red Cross or other community drives come along and the household turns in his few dollars just so he will be counted, just to keep from being thought a tightwad, that is not giving. It is a form of tax. When some higher court (say a Presbytery) or a Board or a Bishop lays upon a congregation an assessment, or in some church campaign for funds a certain amount is "allotted" to a congregation or an individual member, that still is not giving, but more like a tax. You can rightly call it "giving" only when it is freely done, out of sheer good-will, without desire of return.

Investing Personality
When a church invites you to give to one of the causes it supports, it is doing a great deal more, something quite different, than just asking you to shell out some cash. You are being invited to share and invest your personality, no less. There is a hymn which says: "If you cannot cross the ocean and the heathen lands explore, You may find them at your door." Well, you cannot cross the ocean, perhaps. You may be much too old to learn Korean or Portuguese. But your money can cross for you. Your money, given to "missions," represents your own work, your own energy and earning-power, put into portable form. In that portable form it becomes part (for instance) of the salary of a young man and his wife who are missionaries in Korea or some other country. They may be evangelistic missionaries, preaching sermons you could never preach. They may be medical missionaries, performing operations you could never do. Whatever they are, they are where they are, doing what they do, because of the gifts you and others have given through the church. Your personality, without those gifts, would be tied down to your little Main Street; your personality through those gifts goes out to the far corners of the world.

Adding to Yourself
In true giving, you not only invest your personality but your personality itself grows. Paul in writing to the Corinthian Christians whom he knew so well, gives them a high rating for their faith, for their ability to express their faith in words, for knowledge, enthusiasm and love for him. Now you would think that persons who had all those good qualities so that even an apostle, not too easily pleased, was delighted with them, would need no further improvement. They were good enough. But Paul thinks of one thing more. "Could you not add generosity to your virtues?" he asks. (Phillips translation.) The minute you read that you can see the point. A person without generosity is not so big a person as the same person with generosity added. Long after a man's body has ceased to grow, his soul can grow by his increase in the "grace of giving."

The Stingy Are Stunted
On the other hand, the stingy are stunted. They are stunted because their eyesight is poor,—the eyesight of their mind, that is. All they can see is themselves, maybe their families. But they cannot see the needs of other people at all; on the contrary they never see people as they are, but only as sources of income for themselves. They are stunted because they tend to shrink more and more into themselves. Stinginess if left alone will cover up a man's soul as with a thick layer of cobwebs till the soul can scarcely breathe. The stingy man ends by being stingy even with himself. He becomes a miser. Money comes to be the only thing in the world for him. He began by not feeling the needs of others, he ends by not feeling even his own. He will go without much that he needs because even spending money (to say nothing of giving) hurts him to the bone. He is stunted because he finally loses resemblance to a regular human being and becomes no more than a slightly animated piggy-bank. You can put money into him but you can't shake it out. You would hardly guess that this poor shriveled soul had once been made in the image of God.

The Constitutional Amendment

Within a few weeks every registered voter will receive a copy of the Illinois proposed Blue Ballot Reapportionment Amendment, which will be submitted to the voters at the Nov. 2 general election. The amendment has the support of both political parties, and has already been endorsed by 45 business, agricultural and civic organizations in the state.

It gives downstate permanent control of the Senate. It provides that representation in the House shall be based on population with consideration to the basic interests of downstate, the city of Chicago, and the suburban areas of Cook and adjoining counties.

As a result of the failure to redistrict the state as provided in the Constitution 26 percent of the state's population now elects a majority of the Illinois legislators. As the Illinois Constitution is written it requires that the state be redistricted every 10 years. It hasn't been done in over 50 years. This has brought about many glaring inequities in representation not only between city and farm areas, but even in Cook county. In the 15th district in Cook county the population is more than 570,000. Inequities also occur downstate where seven large districts with a combined population of about 1,465,430 elect the same number of senators and representatives as the seven smallest with a population of 561,547.

The most practical solution is the approval of the redistricting plan which goes to the voters on the Blue Ballot in November. It is a sound step for improvement of Illinois government.

March of Dimes

William E. Fay, Joliet, has been reappointed Illinois state chairman of the March of Dimes for the 1955 campaign and Vernon L. Nickell, state superintendent of public instruction has again been named co-chairman, according to Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Fay expressed concern over the immediate need for emergency funds this summer. He said that Illinois chapters of the National Foundation would go all out on the emergency March of Dimes so that polio patients would be able to get needed assistance for care and treatment the remainder of the year.

Fay is a member of the national board of trustees of the National Foundation. Nickell has been state superintendent of public instruction since 1943 and makes his home in Champaign.

BUILD YOUR OWN BOAT AND SAVE MONEY

By building your own boat in your backyard you may save from 40 to 60 per cent of what the same boat would cost ready built. For example, a completed 21 foot outboard cruiser, without engine, sells for about $1,800. The kit to build the same boat costs $750. — Changing Times

To build and equip the average schoolroom costs $33,000.— Changing Times.

One advantage of the horse and buggy was that even if the driver didn't look where he was going—the horse did. Changing Times.

BUILDING BOOM WILL CONTINUE

This year a million houses will be built, and it looks as if next year will be another humdinger. This is also the biggest year yet for the construction of new school buildings. A total of one billion, 900 million dollars is being spent on the public schools. And more than a half a billion will be spent on churches this year.

Stores, office buildings, highways — the boom continues. But not as many new factories are going up. Still factory construction will continue to be high for the foreseeable future — a bright sign for a healthy economy ahead. — ChangingTimes

WHAT HOUSE TRAILER TO BUY?

Trailer production and sales figures show that more people buy trailers to live in than to travel in. The most popular size trailer is 35 feet and the average price for that size is $4,200. Experienced trailerists say that a trailer under 20 feet is good for travel, not so good for steady living. Anything over 30 feet is fine for living, not so good for travel. — Changing Times

Blue Shield INCREASES BENEFITS AT NO EXTRA COST!

Because this Blue Shield Plan has grown so rapidly... because it is a not-for-profit Plan... because it is operated economically and has had good experience... it is now able to increase benefits for the second time in its history.

What These Increases Mean to You!

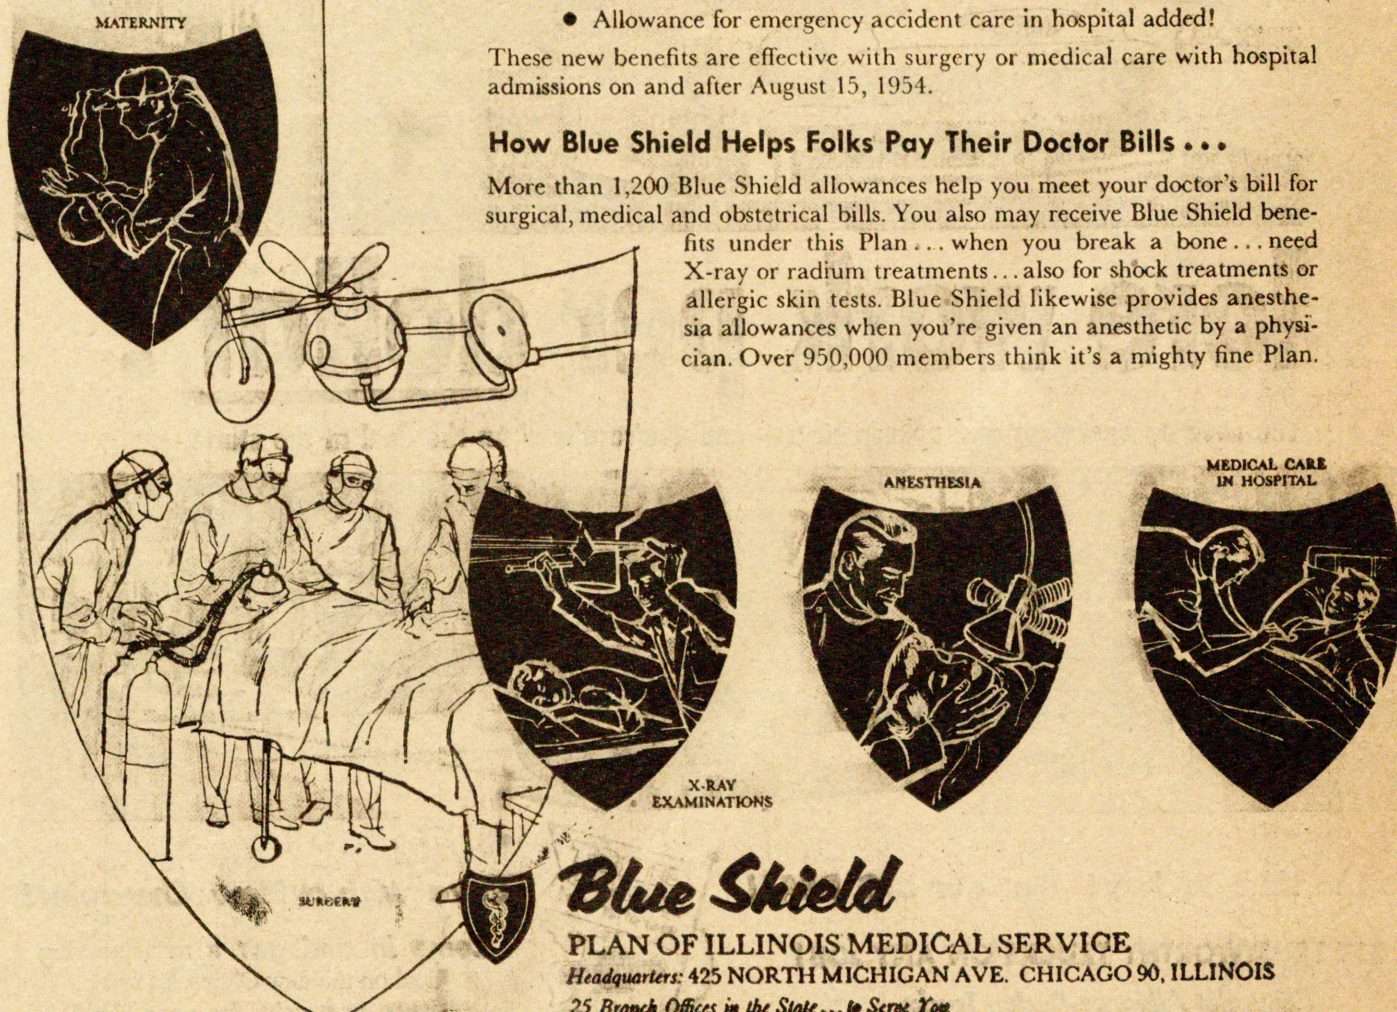

If you are a member... or if you become a member... you will NOW receive greater Blue Shield benefits than ever before. These include:

- In-hospital medical care maximums increased from $180 per calendar year to a possible $220 in a 70-day period!
- Office surgery added for 16 operations performed in the doctor's office!
- X-ray examinations and pathology benefits extended from a calendar year to 90-day basis!
- Numerous anesthesia allowances increased!
- Allowances for certain operations raised!
- Larger payments for unrelated multiple operations on different parts of body!
- Allowance for emergency accident care in hospital added!

These new benefits are effective with surgery or medical care with hospital admissions on and after August 15, 1954.

How Blue Shield Helps Folks Pay Their Doctor Bills...

More than 1,200 Blue Shield allowances help you meet your doctor's bill for surgical, medical and obstetrical bills. You also may receive Blue Shield benefits under this Plan... when you break a bone... need X-ray or radium treatments... also for shock treatments or allergic skin tests. Blue Shield likewise provides anesthesia allowances when you're given an anesthetic by a physician. Over 950,000 members think it's a mighty fine Plan.

Tomorrow's Tractor... Today! Powerful WD-45

Tractor power and conveniences — outstanding now, way ahead for years to come—that's the Allis-Chalmers WD-45! The moment you put this big tractor to work on your farm, you'll discover an ease of farming you've never known before.

SNAP-COUPLER and Power-Shift wheels reduce get-ready time to less than five minutes. Cover more acres... faster! The WD-45 with POWER-CRATER engine handles its 3-bottom plow in third gear under most field conditions. If going gets tough, mounted implement weight is automatically shifted to tractor's drive wheels — reduces slippage, keeps you moving. That's Traction Booster in action.

You'll find tomorrow's features and conveniences in the WD-45 unmatched in any tractor at any price. Let us demonstrate.

Orange Lollipops Appeal to All Ages

With fruit more popular than ever as the final course for dinner, you can depend on Florida citrus fruits to furnish you with plenty of variety right now. The Valencia oranges are wonderfully juicy, and sliced or sectioned, or teamed with other fruits, they make delicious and healthful fruit bowls. The grapefruit from Florida is unusually tangy and yet sweet, and broiled or topped with a sprig of mint, grapefruit halves will do nicely to finish off lunch or dinner—and you'll feel better for having eaten so wisely and so well.

This novel orange dessert will make a special hit. Serve it on the fork on which you roll it, and dessert is done in a twinkling!
